

Year One August 23rd to 27th Lockdown Overview

BOOK WEEK and NAILED IT!

Hello Year 1 families,

This week we celebrate BOOK WEEK with the theme of Old worlds, New worlds, Other worlds. We have organised a really exciting week with several Book Week related activities plus a special guest presenter will join us on Wednesday at 10:30am. Natashaia Curtin released her first picture story book early this year titled Vernon. Here is a quick advertisement to give you a sneak peek: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gmtEFOPEDbg>. We will finish the week with a special dress up morning via WebEx on Friday morning. Please don't feel that you need to buy any extra costumes or props, we are sure you all have some great outfits you can put together at home which represent a favorite book character of your child's.

This week also marks a very special challenge which is happening across the entire school: NAILED IT! If you are not familiar with Nailed It, here is a sneak peek: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pb7CBZ952zs>. We are offering our entire school community the chance to get involved in a cake making and decorating challenge. This is completely optional but we hope it might provide you with a wonderful chance to celebrate imperfection, enjoy the journey, have fun with your family and share your creativity with others should you wish to take part. There are different levels of difficulty which you can choose from and attempt:

Level 1: Apprentice Baker

Level 2: Masterchef Contestant

Level 3: Iron Chef Champion

We will continue with the familiar structure of 2 meetings at 9am and 10:30am and 4 assigned activities each day plus specialist classes. #wegotdisagainandagainandagain. However Monday will be a little different for 1B and 1D who will have their explicit teaching session at 11:30am instead of 10:30am due to staff involvement in our school review.

Our 10:30am sessions will focus on Literacy or Numeracy and will run Monday through Thursday, except for 1B & 1D who will have their session at 11:30am on Monday. Wellbeing will be the key focus on Friday and we are really looking forward to our Book Week Dress Up Morning at 9.00 - 9.30am.

Here is an outline of what the week will look like:

Morning Messages

Our morning messages will continue each day, providing an overview of the key tasks for the day with links to WebEx rooms within these. It has been terrific to see so many children connecting via our 9am meeting. These continue to provide a forum to check in and for students to also engage in targeted phonics activities to keep them engaged and their knowledge and understandings embedded.

Contacting your teacher

All teachers are available daily and are more than happy to answer any questions, queries and offer support and a listening ear. Our 10:30am sessions are really important so we hope your children are enjoying these and find this concentrated time on task really helpful. Please be aware that there are no Friday 10:30am meetings but we are never far away should you need us.

READ

For those students in the READ program, Mr Wood has arranged additional sessions similar to those run at school. To access Mr Wood's Webex room go to: <http://eduvic.webex.com/meet/wood.troy.t>

Specialist classes

Below is a specialist timetable for your child's class. Specialist teachers will be available at the below times to answer any queries about the tasks which will be set on Seesaw for their specialist areas. Specialists will set their tasks on the same day they hold their Webex session. Your child's classroom teacher will provide the appropriate webex link to access the specialist teacher's Webex in the daily morning message.

Student Teacher

This week Shaila Nagal, who joined Mrs Harridge in 1A, will be planning our Mathematics : Time lessons. Shaila has been amazing already commenting, liking and feeding back to students. A big highlight was Shaila contacting The Bluey Team and receiving this message:

Seeing your children every day is such a privilege. We absolutely understand the pressure and demands on your time and attention so if there are days where other priorities overrule, we get it! As we are taking attendance each day, please let us know by logging the absence via Compass or sending us a message via Seesaw. We are never far away so please reach out if you need anything or if we can support you in any way. A message via Seesaw, Compass, the office on edithvale.ps@education.vic.gov.au or via the phone is always absolutely welcome.

Please take care,

Kerri, Amy, Jaime, Catherine and Craig
